POLICEMAN ATTACKED BY GANG OF NEGROES

Craps Shooters Try to Prevent Patrolman Thomas from Arresting One of Group.

Policeman W. L. Thomas, of the Ninth precinct, was injured yesterday in a fight with six negroes, attempting to release a prisoner, in Douglas court north-east. The policeman's back was severely strained as he held his prisoner with one hand and beat off the attack of the colored men with the other.

The fight started early in the afternoon when Thomas surprised a group of craps shooters. He arrested one and attempted to take another when the players set upon him. Holding his prisoner as a buffer, the policeman beat off the assailants with his club and started for the street entrance of the court. The negroes fled when he reached the open.

Thomas took his prisoner to the Ninth police station where information was procured from him which resulted in the arrest of the other five. Thomas was treated at Casualty Hospital and later removed to his home at 609 D street southwest.
